

Today (A Celtic Prayer)

verse 1

Merciful Redeemer, My friend, and brother, my Savior, Sanctifier, My Healer and Coming King,
Lord, Jesus Christ, I thank you
For all the benefits You have won for me;
For all the pain and insults You've borne for me;
For all the troubles that You have lead me through;
For all the blessings You have brought me to.
May I know You more clearly Lord;
May I love You more dearly Lord;
May I follow more nearly Lord TODAY.
May I worship You wonderf'ly;
May I serve You more faithfully;
May I teach faith more constantly TODAY

verse 2

Shepherd, King of all Kings, Our Great Provider, our one almighty God, human baby and great high priest
Lord, Jesus Christ, I thank You
For all the promises You have gifted me;
For all the problems that you have steered from me;
For all the many sins You've forgiven me;
For all the ways You are alive to me.
May I ask of You openly;
May I seek You persistently;
May I knock more expectantly TODAY
May I quickly confess my wrongs;
May I brightly reflect your light;
May I give all in sacrifice TODAY

verse 3

The Way, the Truth, the Life, and the one true bright Light,
the holy one, the worthy one, creator of all things,
Lord, Jesus Christ, I thank You
For all the preparations You've made for me;
For all the trust that you will return for me;
For all Your righteousness that will cover me;
For all Your true love that embraces me.
May I walk only where You lead;
May I speak only what You say;
May I see this world thru Your eyes TODAY.
May I do all things justly Lord;
May I love and show mercy Lord;
May I walk humbly with You Lord TODAY!
TODAY.
